

Process Improvement Consultancy Services

Lighthouse Way support businesses to achieve continuous improvement by supporting their process improvement utilising Lean Six Sigma techniques and the implementation of change including communication of change and controls.

Here are some of the important reasons that require businesses to review their processes.

- Acquisitions
- Mergers
- Demergers
- Restructuring

Organisations going through significant changes prioritise financial and legal requirements understandably however dropping the operational processes can cost the businesses significantly. Having a consultant supporting the process of change will provide the expertise and the focus at the same time from an objective point of view to facilitate the smooth transition.
